About CAFRAL

The Centre for Advanced Financial Research and Learning (CAFRAL), promoted by the Reserve Bank of India, undertakes cutting-edge research in finance and economics and provides capacity-building programs for senior financial sector professionals and policymakers. Its research addresses key issues in financial institutions, markets, and macro-financial policy, while its Learning programs strengthen the leadership and governance framework across the financial system, supporting India's financial stability, inclusion and growth.

Vision

Centre for Advanced Financial Research and Learning (CAFRAL) seeks to establish itself as a global centre of excellence for advanced research and learning in banking, finance and macroeconomics with a view to contributing to policy formulation, building cutting edge technical capacity & financial leadership competencies in the Indian financial sector and public policy space.

Mission

Learning:

To enhance its visibility, leverage on its unique strengths and reposition itself as the only capacity building institution for senior bankers and financial sector participants in niche areas, and on issues of topical relevance and systemic importance, with focus on enhancing value for all stakeholders.

Research:

To emerge as a global research hub in the areas of banking, finance, macroeconomics, and emerging areas relevant to central banking and to deliver policy-oriented research projects of relevance to the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) in a time bound manner.

Objectives

- Engage in highest quality academic research in finance, marco-economics and emerging areas relevant to central banking.
- Enhance the professional capabilities in banks and other Institutions in the financial sector through learning events and programmes.
- Provide a platform for dialogue between policy makers, regulators, financial sector, practitioners and academics on issues of topical relevance and systemic importance.
- Collaborating on mutually beneficial research projects with domestic institutions with similar mandate.
- Conduct short term policy-oriented research of relevance to RBI in a time bound manner.
