About CAFRAL

The Centre for Advanced Financial Research and Learning (CAFRAL) has been set up by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) in the backdrop of India's evolving role in the global economy, in the financial services sector and its position in various international fora, and to develop into a world class global institution for research and learning in banking and finance. CAFRAL is a not-for-profit organisation established as a Society and a Trust; it is an independent body promoted by RBI. CAFRAL became operational in January 2011.

The Governor of RBI is the Chairman of the Governing Council of CAFRAL. CAFRAL's learning arm is engaged in conducting seminars, conferences and other learning programs that serve as a platform for exchange of high-level policy dialogues between the various stakeholders by bringing together regulators, policy makers, bankers, academicians, researchers and practitioners. It also conducts advanced programs for enhancing professional capabilities of senior executives in the financial sector.

CAFRAL's research focus is in the areas of banking and finance. Within these broad areas, our interests include financial institutions, financial markets, behavioral finance, corporate finance, household finance and related areas of macro-finance such as monetary economics or international finance. CAFRAL aims to build intellectual capacity in these areas through its own staff, by hosting researchers of international repute and facilitating collaborative research by building data resources and analytical capabilities.

Mission

To evolve as a global centre of excellence for policy research and advanced learning in banking and finance.

Objectives

- x Enhance our understanding of how the financial sector contributes to real sector growth through in-house and collaborative research that is useful and relevant.
- x Enhance professional capabilities in the banks, financial sector, and among central banks regulators and policy makers through learning events and programs.
- x Provide a platform for dialogue between policy makers' regulators, financial sector, practitioners and academics on issues of topical relevance and systemic importance.
- x Communicate and disseminate the conclusions and results of the learning and research activities of CAFRAL to policy makers, central banks, regulators and public at large.
- x Collaborate and network with domestic and global institutions with similar mandate for mutually beneficial arrangements.

APRIL 2023

1	Conference of Treasury Heads: Emerging Trends and Challenges	April 20, 2023	Mumbai Non-Residential	Jyoti Kumar Pandey
Treasuries of banks play a crucial role in liquidity management, managing market and operational risks, short and long-term investment management, besides developing robust cash flow plans and managing the investment portfolio. The Conference aims at providing heads of different segments of Treasuries of banks a perspective &amp; platform to discuss and understand the risk management functions, factors impacting financial markets and their interplay, risk mitigation steps and regulatory developments.
Participant Profile Heads of Treasuries of banks and officers in middle management associated with Treasury Management functions of the bank
2	Virtual Program on Governance for Directors on the Boards of Banks, NBFCs &amp; FIs	April 27, 2023	Online	C. Sankaranarayanan
The Board of Directors, responsible for effective governance of Banks, Financial Institutions (FIs) and NBFCs is subject to increasing scrutiny, particularly in the event of any disruption or failure in the financial sector. It is the responsibility of the Board to ensure that the business strategies of the organization are properly aligned with the processes &amp; controls, with effective risk management. In today's fast changing financial landscape, Board members need to be abreast of evolving advanced technologies, emerging risks including cyber risk and regulatory or new developments in the sector. As the Board of Directors is responsible for the governance and compliance functions, this program aims to sensitize the directors on various issues of current importance and facilitate sound understanding of the legal and regulatory aspects of corporate governance.
Participant Profile Board of Directors of Banks, NBFCs &amp; FIs.

MAY 2023

3	Virtual Conference of Ombudsmen: Expectations and Challenges	May 12, 2023	Online	Jyoti Kumar Pandey
Tremendous increase in the network of banks' branches in India, complexities of products and services and technological challenges have often resulted in deficiency of services to customers who invariably perceive themselves to be disenfranchised. Protection of customers' interests continues to be a top priority of the regulator and the Ombudsman scheme is a significant measure for redressal of customers' grievances. The Conference would provide a platform for Ombudsmen of Banks, NBFCs and PSOs on the regulatory expectations and the deficiencies observed. This Conference also aims to provide an interactive forum for the Ombudsmen of RBI, Banks, NBFCs and to deliberate on issues and make suggestions for further improvement in the Scheme.
Participant Profile Ombudsmen of RBI, Banks, NBFCs and PSOs
4	Program on Climate Change, Green &amp; Sustainable Finance: Emerging Issues	May 22, 2023	Mumbai Non-Residential	C. Sankaranarayanan

Climate Change and associated risks are a stark reality and the need for an appropriate framework to identify, assess and manage financial risks arising out of climate risk has become an imperative. India has committed to generate 50% of its electricity from non-fossil fuel sources by 2030 and become net zero by 2070. Ensuring access to adequate transition finance and supporting technology would be critical in this process. There is a general consensus that banks and financial institutions will play a key role in financing the transition to a low-carbon economy and supporting the national climate commitments. This program will seek to enhance understanding of the new regulatory changes, emerging climate change risks and the effective mitigation which is required to be in place while financing these new growth areas.

Participant Profile

Senior Officers of RBI, Banks, Financial Institutions and NBFCs dealing with regulations, laws, strategy, compliance relating to climate change. Others who are responsible for ESG compliance, Green Finance, Sustainable Finance and Risk Management, particularly ERM may also attend this program.

JUNE 2023

5	Program on Financial Frauds &amp; Forensic Audit	June 6, 2023	Mumbai Non-Residential	Jyoti Kumar Pandey
Financial frauds in banks including frauds on account of small value card / internet based transactions besides having financial loss implications, also evoke reputational and systemic concerns. It reflects inadequacy in the security and control systems and puts a question mark on the ability of an institution to maintain the requisite standards to prevent money laundering and fraudulent transactions. An analysis of the vintage of frauds also shows a significant time-lag between the date of occurrence of a fraud and its detection. The program aims to enhance awareness in the areas of Fraud Monitoring, Operational Risk Management, Financial Crime Risk Management, Enterprise Risk Management, Internal Audit and Compliance in Banks enabling them to enhance their fraud risk management systems including their framework for Early Warning Signals. The program aims to assist senior officers in the financial sector in identifying control failures, uncover trails &amp; gather legally tenable evidence culminating into financial resolution and prosecution.
Participants Profile Senior officials working in the areas of Fraud Monitoring, Vigilance, Operational Risk Management, Fraud Risk Management, Financial Crime Risk Management, Enterprise Risk Management, Internal Audit and Compliance in Banks, Financial Institutions and NBFCs.

6	Conference of Chief Compliance Officers: Expectations &amp; Challenges	June 22-23, 2023	Mumbai Non-Residential	C. Sankaranarayanan
Compliance risk management contributes significantly in the smooth continuity of any financial intermediation business. A Bank should hold itself to high standards when carrying on business, and at all times strive to observe the spirit as well as the letter of the law &amp; resolution. The role of compliance function in Banks is becoming more complex and demanding. Technology is enabling Banks to ensure better compliance. Compliance should be part of the culture of the organization and ownership of compliance functions should permeate across all lines of activities and at all levels in the hierarchy vertically up to the Board. This program will seek to discuss the recent and evolving changes in the compliance function in Banks and other financial institutions in the context of regulatory framework.

SEPTEMBER 2023

12	CAFRAL Advanced Leadership Program (CALP) (International Program in Association with a Reputed Overseas Business School)	5 Days To be decided	To be decided	Jyoti Kumar Pandey
Banks continue to play a pre-dominant role in financial intermediation in the Indian economy. While the improvements in efficiency of the financial sector in India, in particular banking sector, have won the respect and admiration of most observers worldwide, with increasing integration of the global economy and rapid openness in cross border transactions, Indian financial sector has not remained immune to global developments. While Indian banks have made greater strides in areas of digital payments, financial inclusion etc. and notwithstanding the fact that Indian diaspora occupies a significant place in the banking and technological world, there still remains a significant gap in Indian banks being truly global and world class. The CALP outbound program intends to provide to select senior executives of the banking / financial sector an international experience and insight into the significant trends in the financial world, new age banking and technological trends. Further, we also intend to provide a perspective on the emerging risks and management, cybersecurity risks, governance challenges, emerging / future trends in banking, and role of Machine Language and Artificial Intelligence. The program also aims to familiarise participants with the nuances of soft skills in the areas of leadership and strategy.

23	Program on Fintech/ Advanced Technologies in Financial Intermediation	1 Day To be decided	Mumbai Non-Residential	Jyoti Kumar Pandey
Fintechs have played a significant role in making banking simpler, faster and cost effective. However, this has also necessitated the prospect of moving from activity based regulation to entity based regulation considering the sheer diversity in the functions that could be performed by fintech firms, necessitating a widening of the regulatory perimeter. There is a need to sensitise significant fintech players in the system, of the regulatory perspective and concerns, the digital / cyber risk which their business models could be exposed to and the necessity to have duly tested products and processes. The program would provide a regulatory perspective on the issues and changing dynamics of the Fintech universe, digital and cyber risks and its management, customer protection and future of banking (neo banking, open banking).
Participant Profile Heads of Fintech firms, banks and NBFCs who have linkages with the fintech firms

MARCH 2024

24	Virtual Program on Expected Credit Loss Provisioning norms for Directors of Banks, NBFCs &amp; FIs	1 Day To be decided	Online	C. Sankaranarayanan
The exposures taken by banks are inherently susceptible to various risks, of which credit risk is of primary importance. The incurred loss approach used to be the global standard and after the financial crisis of 2007, both the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) and the US Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) have adopted provisioning standards that require the use of expected credit loss (ECL) models rather than incurred loss models. To further enhance the resilience of the banking system, Reserve Bank has also recently introduced a discussion paper on the forward looking expected credit loss approach for comments. This program seeks to discuss, inter-alia, the change in approach and its impact on the provisioning requirements of the regulated entities.
Participants Profile Chief Credit Officers, CFOs and other Senior Officers working in the Credit Department of Banks, NBFCs and FIs
